

FIRST IIIT EUROPEAN SUMMER SCHOOL

Sarajevo, Bosnia & Herzegovina
24 August – 7 September 2013

Organised by

IIIT London Office
Institute for Epistemological Studies Europe, Brussels and Centre for Advanced Studies, Sarajevo

in cooperation with

The Fairfax Institute, USA

Hosted by

International University of Sarajevo

The programme is designed for European undergraduate and graduate students who are majoring in Islamic studies, humanities or the social sciences and who are interested in developing their knowledge and expertise in the topics listed on the following page. The programme will also provide an opportunity for participants to present and discuss their particular research in workshops. Eight days will be reserved for seminars, two days for presentations and workshops by participants of their current research, and three days for local educational trips. During the course of the programme, participants will complete a total of 80 hours of direct research and instruction and will receive a certificate of attendance from the organisers and the International University of Sarajevo.

Travel expenses, food and accommodation for participants will be covered by the organizers. Students should have their own health insurance coverage. The organizers do not provide health – or any other form – of insurance to students.

Attendance by Registration only. Places are limited. The Conference will be held in English. Those interested, and competent in English, should complete and submit the attached application form with an updated C.V. and a letter of reference from their department or supervisor no later than 30 May 2013 to:
